

Adna Advises Cantor Real Estate And Ynaxis Group On The New Toulouse Business School Campus Project In Casablanca

Posted on September 2, 2025

Categories: Article, Press

Leading francophone law firm ADNA has advised real estate leaders Cantor Real Estate and Ynaxis Group on the development of this landmark project which strengthens the international footprint of one of Europe's leading business schools. Located in the Casa Anfa district, it will welcome local and international students, offering globally recognized programs in management and international business.

The ADNA team advised Cantor Real Estate and Ynaxis Group on all real estate and construction aspects of this significant development — from structuring and negotiating the off-plan lease, to overseeing the construction contracts and related documentation needed to bring this modern, future-proof educational hub to life over almost 3500m². Partner Youssef Benamar led the team, assisted by associate Laila Harrouni Bouissane.

