A.P. Moller Capital specializes in infrastructure investments across emerging and high-growth markets; this transaction strengthens its position in both port terminal operations and port equipment engineering and technology solutions. Portek operates three terminals in Africa - Bejaia in Algeria, Owendo and Port-Gentil in Gabon - central to African supply chains, plus interests in Indonesia, Vietnam, Latvia and Malta.

Partner Foued Bourabiat led the ADNA corporate team, assisted by associates Sarah Rachedi and Naghem Zemrani. White & Case LLP acted as international counsel.
